Below is a selection of activities that can be done at home, you do not have to complete them all, choose the ones that you are most interested in and give them a tick, or colour them in when you have completed them. Remember to take photos and upload them to Tapestry!

Go on a nature hunt in your garden and count how many items you find. Can you make a list or draw what you find?	What shapes can you find in your house? Can you draw and describe them?	Can you count how many shoes there are in your house? Who has the biggest shoes and who has the smallest?	Can you make a fruit salad? Write a list of the fruit that you are going to include. You could even write instructions on how you made it.	Can you draw the fruit that you included in your fruit salad?
Can you go on a minibeast hunt in the garden? Can you make a list or draw what you found?	What can you make with junk modelling? A car, a boat, a house or even a robot?	What can you build with Lego? Can you organise a Lego competition?	Can you draw or write your own story? Remember to fold the paper so it opens like a book.	How many clocks are in your house, can you count them? Remember to include watches! Can you draw the time that they show?
Can you find ten items beginning with the letter 'S'? Take a photo of each item or write a list.	Can you take a selfie with your family? Don't forget to include your pets!	Can you put on your favourite dressing up outfit and do a performance for you family?	Can you think of an animal for each letter of the alphabet? Write a list or draw pictures.	Can you draw a treasure map for in the house? Now go and hide the treasure and see if someone can find it.
Can you play a board game? Snakes and Ladders is fun!	Can you write a post card? If you don't have one at home, you could make one.	Can you draw a picture of your favourite animal? You could even label it.	Can you make an obstacle course in the house or the garden? Remember to get your family to complete it, too!	Can you start a nature diary? Look out of the window everyday and write or draw what you can see.
Can you make play dough using an online recipe? What ingredients did you use?	Can you write or draw a daily weather diary?	Can you make a sandwich? What ingredients will you need?
