Dear parents and carers,

Victorian School Days Workshop at school – Thursday 11th May 2023

We are delighted to be welcoming the Oxfordshire Museums Service into school to run a Victorian School Days workshop next week. The children will have the opportunity to find out what a Victorian school room was like, try some activities and look at objects from the museum to help bring history to life. This will support and inspire the children in their learning around our topic 'School Days'.

The voluntary contribution of £4 per child has been loaded to ParentPay. Please do speak with Mrs Baker in the strictest confidence if you are not able to make a payment as we may be able to support you.

Best wishes
